

We are a new company, so please do not include success stories, testimonials, or fake CXOs. The design must feel trustworthy, premium, and futuristic — something you'd expect from a startup that's serious about delivering high-quality services. Use this color balance strictly: 20% Red (#E10600) – for buttons, highlights, accents 50% White (#FFFFFF) – for clean sections and content areas 30% Black (#0D0D0D) – for headers, footers, or section corporate, not gimmicky. This is a one-pager with the following sections: Home – Hero section with tagline like "Building Next-Gen Tech Solutions", CTA story (keep it real and concise). Maybe a timeline or icon-based highlights. Services – Highlight 3–4 services using modern cards. Use clean white backgrounds, red icons, hover animations. Contact black background and white text, red hover icons. Add microinteractions like hover effects, button

The landing page for NexRIFT features a modern hero section with a tagline and CTA, an About Us interactive cards, and a Contact Us form, all styled in a trustworthy, premium, and futuristic aesthetic with a strict color balance of red, white, and black.
